

TIMOTHY D. NAEGELE

Mr. Naegele's accomplishments have included:

- Being responsible for more than $2 billion in financial institutions mergers and acquisitions, in seven states.
- Preparing federal and state statutes governing bank holding companies and reciprocal interstate banking.
- Serving as special consultant to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.
- Completely revising Maine's banking laws, which now appear as Title 9-B of the Maine Revised Statutes Annotated.
- Consulting in the reorganization of several California regulatory agencies.
- Chairing the Federal Bar Association's Banking Law Committee and serving on its Executive Committee.
- Authoring numerous scholarly articles on banking law and other matters that have appeared in the American Banker, Banking Law Journal, Hastings Law Journal, and other publications.

Phone & e-mail

Call: 805-827-0983; e-mail: tdnaegele.associates@gmail.com

Web sites

<http://www.naegele.com> or <http://www.bankinglaw.com> or <http://www.naegeleknol.wordpress.com>

Experience

Timothy D. Naegele & Associates, Washington, D.C. Partner, Brownstein, Zeidman & Schomer, Washington, D.C. (1973-1977).

Has involved the practice of administrative law before federal and state regulatory agencies, and the representation of clients before the Congress.

Has written the financial institutions laws of the State of Maine, which now appear as Title 9-B of the Maine Revised Statutes Annotated; served as special consultant to the State of California on matters pertaining to financial institutions; was special consultant to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and testified as an expert witness on its behalf in connection with litigation arising from the failure of a national bank; and has represented various banks, holding companies, and other clients in connection with legislative matters, mergers and acquisitions, branching matters, supervisory problems, and other legislative and regulatory concerns, including Standby Letters of Credit.

1971-1972:

Administrative Assistant and chief of staff to Presidential Medal of Freedom and Congressional Gold Medal recipient and former U.S. Senator Edward W. Brooke (R-Mass). Advisor, speechwriter; directed staff through re-election campaign.

1969-1971:

Assistant Counsel, Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs, United States Senate, Washington, D.C. Responsible for speech writing and legislative matters pertaining to banking, securities, international trade, and housing (e.g., participated in drafting various provisions of the following Acts, in addition to assorted bills on various subjects, such as the Export Expansion and Regulation Act of 1969, the Bank Holding Company Act Amendments of 1970 [authored its Anti-Tying Provision, which is the only federal antitrust law enacted by Congress that deals specifically with predatory lending practices by banks and other financial institutions], the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1969 and 1970 [authored the “Brooke Amendment” relating to public housing; and the national “Housing Allowance” program, which morphed into the Section 8 housing program that has helped millions of Americans]). Staffed Presidential Commission on Mortgage Interest Rates (1969).

On behalf of Senator Brooke, established a summer program for disadvantaged kids in Massachusetts, in conjunction with The Pentagon, which involved underutilized military facilities within the state (e.g., the Boston Navy Yard, Otis Air Force Base) and served approximately 100,000 kids during its first year alone. Traveled from Washington, D.C. to Massachusetts with then-Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird and Senator Brooke to review the program and its progress.

1967-1969:

Captain, United States Army. Completed the Infantry Officer Basic Course at Fort Benning, Georgia. Assigned to U.S. Army Element, Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA), The Pentagon, Washington, D.C. Received Joint Service Commendation Medal.

1966-1967:

Attorney, Morrison & Foerster, San Francisco, California

Education

L.L.M., Georgetown University, 1969. Served on the Board of Editors of Law and Policy in International Business, an international business law publication of the law school.
L.L.B., School of Law (Boalt Hall), University of California, Berkeley, 1966.
A.B., Economics, University of California at Los Angeles, 1963. University of California, Santa Barbara, 1958-1962. Vice President, Freshman Class; President, Sophomore Class; Vice President, Associated Students. Member, Board of Directors, UCSB Alumni Association, 1980-86; Trustee, UCSB Foundation, 1987-1990.

As President of the Sophomore Class at UCSB, produced concerts that made money for the class featuring (1) the terrific blind jazz pianist, George Shearing who performed at UCSB's Gymnasium; and at the Santa Barbara Bowl (2) the Kingston Trio, which was the top act on American college campuses at the time. Also, to earn extra money, produced concerts independently featuring (3) the pianist Roger Williams at the Exhibit Building of Santa Barbara's Earl Warren Showgrounds; and (4) a revival of the World War II-vintage Glenn Miller Band—including some of its original performers—at Santa Barbara's historic Grenada Theatre. And when working in the U.S. Senate, produced a fund-raising concert for Senator Edward W. Brooke in Boston, starring (5) the great Johnny Mathis and other performers.

Publications

“Civilian Complaints Against the Police in Los Angeles,” Issues in Criminology, University of California, Summer, 1967; “Are All Bank Tie-Ins Illegal?” The Bankers Magazine, Summer, 1971; “Standby Letters of Credit and Other Bank Guaranties,” Compendium of Major Issues in Bank Regulation, Committee on Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs, United States Senate, 1975; “The Anti-Tying Provision: Its Potential Is Still There,” 100 Banking Law Journal 138 (1983); “The Guaranteed Student Loan Program: Do Lenders’ Risks Exceed Their Rewards?” 34 Hastings Law Journal 501 (1983); “The Bank Holding Company Act’s Anti-Tying Provision: 35 Years Later,” 122 Banking Law Journal 195 (March 2005); “The Bank Holding Company Act’s Anti-Tying Provision: Almost 50 Years Later—Part I,” 135 Banking Law Journal 315 (June 2018); “The Bank Holding Company Act’s Anti-Tying Provision: Almost 50 Years Later—Part II,” 135 Banking Law Journal 372 (July/August 2018); “Standby Letters Of Credit And Other Bank Guaranties: Revisited,” 136 Banking Law Journal 198 (April 2019); “The Brooke Amendment And Section 8 Housing: Revisited,” 136 Banking Law Journal 245 (May 2019); “Wells Fargo: An American Banking Nightmare,” 136 Banking Law Journal 493 (October 2019); “Are Banks Irrelevant?” 137 Banking Law Journal 3 (January 2020); “So You Want To Sue A Bank, Or Defend One?” 137 Banking Law Journal 164 (April 2020); “The Coronavirus and Similar Global Issues: How to Address Them,” 137 Banking Law Journal 285 (June 2020); “Homelessness In America” 137 Banking Law Journal 378 (July-August 2020). Also numerous articles, for example in the American Banker.

Reported Cases

Downriver Community Federal Credit Union v. Penn Square Bank, 879 F.2d 754 (10th Circuit 1989); Bender v. CenTrust Mortgage Corp., 833 F.Supp. 1525 (S.D. Fla. 1992);

Bender v. CenTrust Mortgage Corp., 833 F.Supp. 1540 (S.D. Fla. 1992); Bender v. CenTrust Mortgage Corp., 51 F.3d 1027 (11th Cir. 1995).

Acquisitions

(1) Southern California Savings by The Securities Groups (1982); (2) Fidelity Federal Savings and Loan of Baltimore (1984), (3) American Heritage of Illinois (1984), (4) Fidelity Savings & Loan of Martins Ferry, Ohio (1985), (5) Brighton Federal of Colorado (1985), and (6) Century Savings of Kansas (1985) by Household Bank, F.S.B.; and (7) United Bank of San Francisco by Hibernia Bancshares Corporation (1986).

Affiliations

District of Columbia Bar, Federal Bar Association (Chairman, Banking Law Committee, 1971-1974; Vice Chairman, Council on Financing, 1974-1975; Chairman, Council on Financial Institutions and the Economy, 1975-1976; Member, Executive Council of Banking Law Committee, 1975-present), Phi Delta Phi International Legal Fraternity, Blue Key National Honorary, Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity, UCLA Alumni Association (Life Member), UCSB Alumni Association (Life Member), DIA Alumni Association.

Certifications have included

District of Columbia Court of Appeals, United States Courts of Appeals (Ninth Circuit, Tenth Circuit and Eleventh Circuit), U.S. District Courts (Northern District of California, Central District of California, District of Columbia, District of Nebraska), United States Court of Federal Claims.

Recognition

Who's Who in America, Who's Who in American Law, and Who's Who in Finance and Business.

Recreation & Hobbies

Outdoor sports, especially hiking; studied photography with Ansel Adams, and continues to do landscape photography.

Party Affiliation

Independent